

Cover Letter

I am passionate about membranes for gas separation and I wish to join your research team for a summer internship, during the months of July and August, to be potentially followed by a master thesis placement.